2019 COVER SHEET: GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH ON POVERTY, INEQUALITY, AND DEMOCRACY

Applicant Information

Name:

Email:

UC Campus:

☐ UC Santa Barbara  ☐ UC Davis
☐ UCLA  ☐ UC Santa Cruz
☐ UC Merced  ☐ UC San Diego
☐ UC Berkeley  ☐ UC San Francisco
☐ UC Irvine  ☐ UC Riverside

Department:

Perm #:

Advancement Date (Month/Day/Year):

Have you received any other funding for this project? If yes, please briefly describe this funding and when you received it.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Project Title (or keywords)

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Name of Faculty Dissertation Advisor:

________________________________________________________________________

Requirements:

☐ This cover sheet

☐ A brief project description (maximum of 750 words) discussing the project’s objectives, central theoretical and research questions, approach and methodology, contributions to the field, and relevance to the themes outlined in the call for proposals

☐ A detailed budget (List and justify anticipated items (and their associated cost) that are applicable to your project. Review eligible and non-eligible research expenses as outlined in the call for proposals (CFP)).

☐ A curriculum vitae (no longer than 2 pages)

☐ A letter of reference from the applicant’s faculty graduate advisor indicating support for the proposed research and verification of advancement to candidacy

☐ Verification of IRB approval (if required)