How did you find this internship (eg the Blum Center listing; my own research, etc):

Review the goals you set for yourself at the beginning of this internship in the Learning Agreement, related to your career aspirations and/or academic studies. How much progress did you make toward these goals in your internship? How can you tell?

Describe the types of projects you worked on. What were the best parts of your internship, and why?

What were the most challenging parts of your internship? How did you try to address them?

In what ways do you feel you contributed to advancing this organization's goals/missions?

Please describe the role of your supervisor within the organization. How would you describe your working relationship with your supervisor? Did you meet regularly? Was your supervisor accessible? Did you receive regular feedback? Sufficient guidance?

What did you learn about the realities of social justice work from your internship experience that you would not have known if you did not participate in this internship?

Has this internship experience affected your educational and/or career plans? Will you be continuing your involvement with your host organization after this internship ends, e.g. as a volunteer, staff member, etc?

Did any classes related to the minor help you prepare (and/or perform) for this internship?

Do you feel that you were adequately prepared for your internship by the Blum Center/History Department? If not, how could this be improved?

Would you recommend this internship site to other students? Why or why not? What advice would you give future interns with this organization?

Can we share your responses with other Minor in Poverty, Inequality, and Social Justice (MPISJ) students interested in interning with this organization? (Y/N)

Would you be willing to communicate with other MPISJ students about your internship experience? (Y/N)

Overall, how would you rank your internship experience? Rate 1-5, with 5 (excellent) and 1 (poor).
